

School Psychology Newsletter

October 28—November 3, 2015

Student Housekeeping

- If you are having issues with Practicum course enrollment, please download this form from the Graduate School and fill it out. You must get it signed by Dr. Bray and return it to Luba Bugbee at the Graduate School.
- For more information on registration issues, please see the previous newsletter.
- Practicum will be cancelled this coming Tuesday 11/10.

Upcoming Dates

11/9-11/13—Next week is National School Psychology Week!

1/26, 1/29, & 2/1—Please reserve these days for Interview Days! The faculty expects all current students to attend, so please save these dates now! The Dean's Doctoral Scholars interviews will take place on January 26th.

Holiday Social Information!

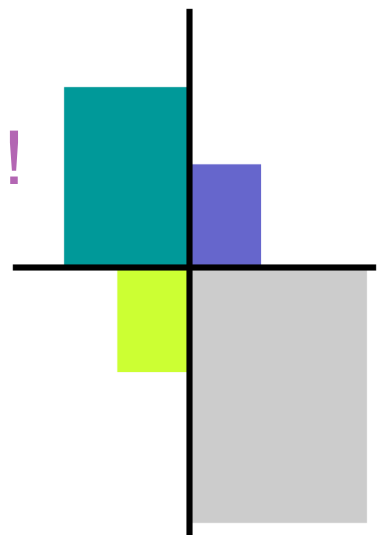

When: Friday, December 11th

Time: 5:30-7:30 PM

Where: Gentry 144

RSVP by: Friday, November 13th

All students and faculty are invited to the School Psychology Holiday Social! You must RSVP in order to be sent future information about the event and food sign-ups. A reminder to RSVP will be sent out in next week's newsletter as well. Please email me to ensure that you are included in our count for attendance.

Paid Opportunities

ASRC in Wallingford, CT is looking for paid mentors for some of their adult recreation programs. One will be for an adult game night on Saturday evenings twice a month. The other program will be for a community group for 20-30 year olds with ASD with flexible dates or time spanning weekends. Interested students should contact Emily Swindelles (Emily@autismconnecticut.org) for more information on either of these positions.

Presentation Opportunities

The May Institute is seeking UConn poster submissions for their 10th annual New England PBIS Forum this month. They have extended their deadline to include more of our students. Students interested should contact Bo Putnam at bputnam@mayinstitute.org for information on how to present.

Internship Opportunities

Baltimore City Public Schools are looking for applicants for next year for a full time intern. The school district is large and serves a diverse urban population. More information about this internship opportunity can be found at this link, and students may contact Dr. Rivka Olley (riolley@bcps.k12.md.us) for more information.

“I think you have to try and fail, because failure gets you closer to what you’re good at.”

Louis C. K.

