Funding

Doctoral Travel Funding

Doctoral students can apply for a one time $750.00 travel award for reimbursement funds to present research at national or international meetings/conferences.

To apply, go to <http://grad.uconn.edu/wp-content/uploads/sites/1635/2016/12/request-for-travel-spring-2017.pdf>

Clinical Practicum Opportunities

Below is a list of clinical practicum sites that currently have a relationship with University of Hartford, but are also considering taking UConn students.

As such, the application process may be more competitive than other practicum sites, and require 16-18 hour weekly commitments. They are most appropriate for advanced 2nd and 3rd year students.

CCMC School
Dr. Patricia FitzGerald
Pfitzgerald@connecticutchildrens.org

Grace Webb School (IOL)
Dr. Ralph Dodd
ralph.dodd@hhchealth.org

Natchaug Hospital Schools (i.e. Joshua Centers)

Ms. Jill Borbeau

jbourbe@natchaug.org

Note: Jill is the executive director but will connect students to whatever site is in need of grad students.

Solnit Center - South (formerly Riverview Hospital)

Ms. Carol Orme-Hughes

carol.orme-hughes@ct.gov

Note: Carol is the residential care director but you have to go through her to get to

Dr. Frank Gregory, the clinical director

Internship Opportunities

Wethersfield

Wethersfield is interested in taking a student for either practicum or internship. The position is unpaid. If interested, email Liz D'Amato at edamato@wethersfield.me

Happy 2017!
