

Week of February 22nd

School Psychology Newsletter

Program Activities

Praxis II Update for Upper-Level Students

When you receive your score report after taking and passing the Praxis II, please print out your score report and leave a copy in Dr. Bray's mailbox to be filed, even if you had your scores sent to UConn.

CBER Graduate Research Symposium

Save the date for Friday, May 12th, 8:30-1:30 pm. The topic is Current Opportunities and Challenges to the Field of Education and will speakers including U.S. Senator Chris Murphy and Catherine Holahan, Education Counsel.

Resources

APA Membership

Division 16 (School Psychology) <http://apadivision16.org/membership/> of the American Psychological Association is currently offering special enrollment rates for new members in 2017 ($5 for students and International Affiliates, $20 for Members, Associate Members, and Professional Affiliates).

Students and professors are eligible for membership.

Getting the Most out of NASP

The SSSP Early Career has a new blog post Dr. Leandra Parris, Work Hard, Play Hard, Be Mindful: Getting the Most Out of NASP as an Early Career Professional. This is a great read for anyone attending NASP!

NASP- Thriving in Graduate School

The NASP Jan/Feb issue of Communiqué has a good article on thriving in graduate school. If you are a NASP member, click here to read it! The link does not work for non-NASP members.

Volunteer Opportunities

Summer Camp for Children with Muscular Dystrophy

The Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA) is having a week-long summer camp for 6-17 year-old children who live with Muscular Dystrophy or other neuromuscular diseases at no cost to their families. The camp is in Hebron, CT. They are looking for counselors who will get 140 volunteer hours and possible recommendation opportunities.

If interested, please contact Nicole Ginfoli at nginolfi@mdausa.org. A flyer is also attached.

Internship Opportunities

East Hartford Public Schools

East Hartford is looking for an intern for the 2017-2018 school year. If interested, please contact Dr. Scott Edington (school psychology supervisor) at edington.s@easthartford.org

Have a great week!

