School Psychology Newsletter

Program Information

Practicum 4/6

During Practicum on Thursday, April 6th (Gentry 201, 2:30-5:00), Dr. Michael Powers will be coming from the Center for Children with Special Needs in Glastonbury to provide students with information about the Center. All students are strongly encouraged to attend.

Practicum Hours

All students enrolled in practicum need to submit their hours, signed by their supervisor, by mid-June.

Q-Global

Students using Q-Global should use the WISC-V score report and not the WISC-V interpretive reports.

Program Activities

Graduate Student Appreciation Week

April 2-8 is Graduate Student Appreciation Week! There are many talks and activities planned. Visit here for more information!

Career Fair

Neag SOE is hosting their annual Career Fair on Wednesday, April 5th, from 10:00am-4:00pm. The session will have a complete list of participating districts who are hiring school psychologists, tips on researching districts, and a chance to speak with alumni.

Any graduating students who are planning to work in a school district are invited to attend.

If you would like to attend, please register by Tuesday, March 14th with this link <https://www.events.foundation.uconn.edu/234179>

Fingerprinting

If anyone needs to get or renew fingerprinting, EastConn is coming to campus on April 11th and 12th from 9am-4pm in Gentry 144. All students are eligible for fingerprinting, which is $48.

New students: you will need to be fingerprinted before you start practicum next year, so if you are already on campus, this is a good opportunity to get it done!

Program News

ASMR Interview

Marisa Del Campo, a UConn school psychology alumna did an interview with U.S. News and World Report on her ASMR research. Click here to read her manuscript!

Neag Alumni Award

Congratulations to Dr. Shamim Patwa for receiving the 2017 Neag School Alumni Award for Outstanding School Educator!

Professional Development

Blog on Publishing Research in School Psychology

The SSSP Early Forum released the blog post “Where Should I Send My Manuscript?: Journal Options for Research in School Psychology” with good information on publishing research.

2017 SASP Student Research Forum (SRF)

SASP is holding a student research forum during the 125th annual APA Convention on Saturday, August 5th, from 8-9:50 am in Washington D.C. This provides a great opportunity for networking and digital poster presentations.

All current school psychology graduate students are eligible to submit proposals for poster presentations and the deadline for applications is May 26th, 2017, at 11:59 pm EST.

For more information, go here.

Postdoctoral Opportunities

Tulane University

Drs. Stacy Overstreet and Courtney Baker in the Department of Psychology at Tulane University (New Orleans, LA) invite applications for a full-time, one- or two-year postdoctoral research fellow to coordinate evaluation of a federally-funded experimental trial examining implementation strategies for trauma-informed approaches in six New Orleans K-8 public charter schools.

The project is supported by a four-year grant from the National Institute of Justice and has just completed its baseline year of data collection.

For more information, please see the attached flyer.

GA Opportunities

The Center for Students with Disabilities

The Center for Students with Disabilities is looking to hire two or three 20 hour GA's for the '17-'18 academic year. For more information, please see the attached flyer.
