

Week of April 19th

School Psychology Newsletter

Program Information

Scholarship Awards

A big congratulations to Maria Avita for receiving both the J. Raymond and Augusta Gerberich Fellowship and the Vivienne Dean Litt Memorial Scholarship!

Congratulations!

Professional Opportunities

Dr. Melissa Bray Interview

Melissa had a great interview with Neag as part of their “10 Questions” series and answered a series of interesting questions about her past work in school psychology, and her current research projects. Thanks for being such a great representation of our program and field!

To read the full interview, click here!

Dissertation Boot Camp

The UConn Writing Center is holding a dissertation boot camp from Monday, May 15th to Thursday, May 18th from 9am-4pm. This is open to students working on their dissertations who would like to make a commitment to sustained writing and generating pages.

There will not be any tutoring or lectures.

For more information and to sign up, go here.

PEO Projects

PEO is offering scholarships for women pursuing a doctoral degree. The maximum award is $15,000.

For more information on scholarships, go here.

The organization also offers loans at 3 percent interest.

For more information on loans, go here.

Loyola Online Certificate in School Discipline Reform

Loyola University Chicago is offering an online certificate program in school discipline reform with a cross-disciplinary collaboration with the School of Law and the School of Education.

If you are interested, please go here for more information.

Research Participation

Autism Awareness

Dr. Maryellen McClain Verdoes from Utah State University is doing a study about school psychology graduate students' knowledge of autism spectrum disorder. It is approximately 15 mins to complete and if you participate, you will be entered into a raffle to win a $50 Amazon gift card.

To participate, go here.

Students from Military Families

Doctoral candidate Lindsey Marco from Washington State University is looking for individuals who grew up in a military family to participate in a survey for her dissertation.

The survey can be accessed here.

Graduate Assistantship Opportunities

Program GAs

The School Psychology program is hiring 2 GAs for next year. The position includes work with prospective students, admissions, and general program management such as managing the website, assessment cabinets, and putting together the weekly newsletter (☺).

If you are interested, please send your resume/CV and a statement of intent to Melissa Bray at Melissa.bray@uconn.edu

Job Opportunities

CCSN Behavioral Health

CCSN Behavioral Health in Glastonbury, CT is looking for a part-time Behavior Technician. The position is 20-25 hours and offers supervision for BCBA certification.

More information is attached and if you are interested in applying, send your CV and cover letter to info@ccsnct.org

CCSN is also interested in hiring students for other positions during the summer and during the year. Please also contact info@ccsnct.org if you are interested.

Internship Opportunities

Homer, Alaska

The Kenai Peninsula Public School District (KPBSD) is looking for an intern! They pay interns the full salary and reimburse for up to $3,000 for relocation.

If you are interested, please go here for more information.

Practicum Opportunities

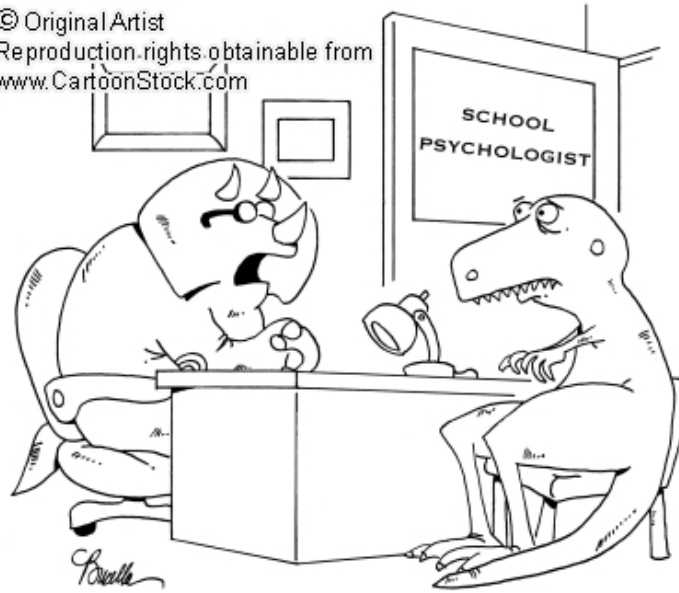

New Britain, CT

Jen Ortiz, the school psychologist in New Britain, is looking for a practicum student for next year.

If you are interested, please contact her at jenmortiz@gmail.com

Have a great week!

© Original Artist
Reproduction rights obtainable from www.CartoonStock.com

search ID: mbcn2037

"I can understand you getting upset when they make fun of your little arms, but eating your classmates is not the answer."